DEPUTY PRESIDENT DEAN

CANBERRA, 2 APRIL 2025

Application for approval of the Independent Schools NSW (Professional and Operational Staff) Cooperative Multi-Enterprise Agreement 2025.

[1] An application has been made for approval of a multi-enterprise agreement known as the Independent Schools NSW (Professional and Operational Staff) Cooperative Multi-Enterprise Agreement 2025 (the Agreement). The application was made pursuant to s.185 of the Fair Work Act 2009 (the Act). It has been made by The Association of Independent Schools of New South Wales Limited. The Agreement is a multi-enterprise agreement.

[2] I am satisfied that each of the requirements of ss 186, 187 and 188 as are relevant to this application for approval have been met.

[3] The Independent Education Union of Australia, being a bargaining representative for the Agreement, has given notice under s 183 of the Act that it wants the Agreement to cover it. In accordance with s 201(2), the Commission notes that the Agreement covers this organisation.

[4] The Applicant has also made an application pursuant to s.218A to correct errors in the Agreement which were identified after it was made. The application seeks to correct drafting errors in Schedule 4 of the Agreement, and to correct the names of the legal entities and schools in Schedule 6 and Schedule 7 that are covered by the Agreement. I am satisfied that the errors identified by the Applicant are obvious errors and irregularities and that it is appropriate to make the correction by varying the Agreement pursuant to s.218A of the Act. An amended version of the Agreement has been filed which incorporates the variation.

(c) Classification and Progression – Nursing Services Employees

(d) Classification and Progression – Preschool/Childcare Services Employees

Preschool/Childcare Services Employees shall be initially appointed to the appropriate level set out in Table 1(i) of Schedule 1 – Salary Scales and

Allowances, on the basis of the Employee's total full-time equivalent years of service as a Preschool/Childcare Services Employee, including service in an early childhood or childcare service prior to appointment. 13. Rates of Pay 13.1 The minimum weekly rate of pay for an Employee shall, subject to the other provisions of this Agreement, be calculated by dividing the salaries set out in Table 1 Annual Rates of Schedule 1 – Salary Scales and Allowances, by 52.14.

13.2 Junior Employees

Junior Employees appointed to the following classifications may be paid the percentages of the adult rate for their classification as set out in Table 2 – Junior Rates of Schedule 1 – Salary Scales and Allowances:

- (e) Preschool/Childcare Services – Level 1 and Level 2;
- (f) Instructional Services – Level 1 and Level 2.

14. Stand Down and Averaging

14.1 The Employer may elect to stand down the following Employees on leave without pay during non-term time when no work is available:

- (a) Classroom Support Services Employees;
- (b) Curriculum/Resources Services Employees;
- (c) Clerical and Administration Services Employees;
- (d) ICT Support Services Employees;
- (e) School Operational Services Employees (other than Cleaners);
- (f) Instructional Services Employees;
- (g) Nursing Services Employees; and
- (h) Wellbeing Services Employees.

Provided that an Employee not stood down during non-term time prior to the making of this Agreement shall not be stood down after the making of this Agreement unless he or she agrees in writing.

14.2 Notwithstanding the provisions prescribed above in clause 14.1, the following Employees may not be stood down on leave without pay during the non-term time:

- (a) School Operational Services Employees (Cleaners only);
- (b) Preschool/Childcare Services Employees; and
- (c) Boarding Services Employees.

14.3 Where an Employee is stood down in accordance with clause 14.1 the Employer may elect to pay the Employee the appropriate weekly rate of pay determined in accordance with clause 13.1 during only the periods worked, or to average the Employee's payment of wages over the year.

14.4 When the Employer elects to average the Employee's payment of wages in accordance with clauses 14.1 and 14.3, the rates will be paid in equal instalments throughout the year including while the Employee is on annual leave. A year is defined as commencing on the date that the Employee started being paid an averaged salary.

14.5 The following formula shall be used to determine the appropriate averaged weekly rate:

$$\frac{N + 11}{240} \times \frac{\text{Annual rate of salary}}{52.14}$$

Where:

N = The number of days the Employee will be required to work each year excluding public holidays.

For the purpose of this formula only, and to avoid a mathematical inconsistency, a part-time Employee shall be deemed to work the same number of days during school terms as a full-time Employee at the School.

[For example: To calculate the averaged salary for an Employee who works three days per week for 38 weeks per year, the correct value for N is 190 (i.e. 38 x 5) less any public holidays which fall within the weeks the Employee is deemed to work. If it is assumed that one such public holiday falls within the period worked by the Employee, the value of N becomes 189 (i.e. 190-1). The calculation would then proceed as follows:

 \frac{189 + 11}{240} & \times & \frac{$62,909}{52.14} \quad ($62,909 = \text{Annual Salary}) \\
 = & 0.8333 \times & $1,206.54 \\
 = & $1,005.41 & \text{per week (averaged weekly full-time salary)}
 \end{array}$$

To convert to a part-time weekly rate – divide the averaged weekly rate (above) by 38 to obtain an averaged hourly rate. Multiply the averaged hourly rate by the number of hours to be worked by the part-time Employee.

$$\frac{$1,005.41}{38} = $26.46 \text{ per hour}$$

$$$26.46 \times 24 \text{ (i.e. 3 days x 8 hours)} = $635.04 \text{ per week}$$

Therefore, the part-time averaged annual salary in this example is $635.04 per week.]

- 14.6 Part-time averaged rates shall be calculated by determining the full-time averaged salary then dividing by 38.
- 14.7 The rate of pay of an Employee determined in clauses 14.4 - 14.6 shall be the appropriate rate for all purposes. However, such rate shall not be used in the calculation of casual rates in clause 9.5(a), shift penalties in clause 22 Shift Work and clause 23 Saturday and Sunday Penalty Rates, overtime rates of pay in clause 24 Overtime, paid parental leave in clause 28 Parental Leave or public holiday rates of pay in clause 34.4 Public Holidays which may be payable to the Employee.
- 14.8 An Employee's contract of employment shall be deemed not to have been broken for the purposes of this Agreement and/or any other relevant statute during periods of stand down on leave without pay. Leave will continue to accrue during such periods.

14.9 Public Holidays During Stand Down

- (a) Any public holidays falling within a period of stand down on leave of absence without pay shall be paid at the ordinary rate of pay if they fall on a day which the Employee normally works.
- (b) Unaveraged Wage Employees - If an Employee receives an unaveraged rate of pay, the Employee must receive payment for such public holidays.
- (c) Averaged Wage Employees - Payment for such public holidays is part of the averaged rate of pay so no additional payment is required when an averaged rate of pay is being paid to an Employee.

14.10 In accordance with the Employee's letter of appointment, and any agreed variations to such letter, an Employee may be required to work during the non-term time during which the Employee is ordinarily stood down.

14.11 If the Employee's letter of appointment, and any agreed variations to the letter, do not specifically designate the period to be worked during non-term time, the Employee shall be given eight weeks' notice of a request to work during a non-term time prior to the commencement of the non-term time. The Employee may be requested to work during the ordinary hours and days which the Employee normally works, provided that the Employee may agree to work on different days or for different hours or with a lesser period of notice.

14.12 An Employee who works as outlined in clause 14.11 (where the period required to be worked is not specifically designated in the Employee's letter of appointment or any agreed variations to this letter) shall be paid at the casual rate of pay for the relevant classification in addition to any other remuneration received if the Employee is paid an averaged rate of pay pursuant to clauses 14.4 – 14.6.

These provisions will apply to parental leave commenced after the Commencement Date. If an Employee has commenced parental leave prior to the Commencement Date, then the provisions of the Previous Agreement shall apply.

28.1 General

- (a) Employees are entitled to take unpaid parental leave in accordance with the provisions of the Act, subject to the limitations and conditions contained in that Act.
- (b) A period of paid parental leave will count as service for the purposes of annual leave, leave loading, personal/carer's leave and long service leave, and incremental progression under clause 12.3 of this Agreement.
- (c) The entitlement to paid parental leave provided for in clauses 28.2 and 28.3 is inclusive of, and not in addition to, the Employee's entitlement to take unpaid parental leave (including concurrent parental leave) in accordance with the Act.

- (b) The amount of paid parental leave for an Employee who applies for unpaid parental leave of at least fourteen weeks under the Act, shall be fourteen weeks, provided that if the Employee takes a lesser period of leave or whose employment ends before the end of the fourteen weeks of leave, the Employee shall be entitled to that lesser amount of paid leave.
- (c) If an Employee has taken a previous period of parental leave, the Employee is not entitled to the benefit described in this clause 28.2 for a consecutive period of parental leave unless the Employee returns to work at the School for a period of at least 6 months following the previous period of parental leave. However, the Employee will be entitled to unpaid parental leave in accordance with the Act.
- (d) The Employee must be paid:

- (i) at the rate the Employee was paid at the time of commencing the leave, if the Employee is paid a lump sum in accordance with clause 28.2(e)(i); or
- (ii) at the rate that would otherwise apply to the Employee, if the Employee is paid at the usual times and intervals that other Employees are paid at the school.

 - (i) more than 20 weeks before the anticipated date of birth, the Employee is not entitled to the payment;

- (h) An Employee must give notice of the intention to take parental leave, and provide other notice and documentation, as required by section 74 of the Act.

- (i) Where possible, parental leave should preferably commence on the day following the last teaching day of a term and conclude on the day preceding the first teaching day of a term. However this does not diminish the right of an Employee to proceed on leave on the date the Employee nominates in accordance with the Act.*
- (ii) In order to facilitate the desirable practice referred to in Notation (i) above, the Employer is prepared to extend the time of parental leave beyond that maximum entitlement prescribed by the Act, should the Employee agree to return from parental leave at the commencement of the term immediately following the maximum period of leave required to be afforded by that Act.]*

- (c) An Employee who was not the initial primary caregiver, but who subsequently becomes the primary person responsible for the care of the child because the initial primary caregiver has returned to work or studies, will be entitled to a maximum period of 12 weeks paid parental leave. This period of paid parental leave must be taken within the 12 month period commencing from the date of the child's birth or in the case of adoption, from the date of placement of the child. This period of up to 12 weeks paid parental leave is in addition to the two week entitlement to paid parental leave under clause 28.3(b). If the Employee takes a lesser period of leave or whose employment ends before the end of the 12 weeks of leave, the Employee shall be entitled to that lesser amount of paid leave.

Note: The Employee who was not the initial primary caregiver must have 12 months of continuous service at the time of the birth of the child or placement of the child to access the up to 14 weeks paid parental leave, pursuant to clause 28.3.

- (d) An Employee must give notice of the intention to take parental leave, and provide other notice and documentation, as required by section 74 of the Act.

Schedule 3 – Classification Framework

The following schedule applies in determining the appropriate classification to appoint employees.

	Competency	Judgement, independence and problem solving	Level of Supervision	Training level or qualifications
Classification Level A An employee at this level will learn and gain competency in the basic skills required by the employer. In the event that the increased skills/competency are required and utilised by the employer, classification to a higher level within the structure may be possible.	Competency involves application of knowledge and skills to a limited range of tasks and roles. There is a specific range of contexts where the choice of actions is clear. The competencies are normally used within established routines, methods and procedures that are predictable. Judgments against established criteria may also be required.	The employee follows standard procedures in a predefined order. The employee resolves problems where alternatives for the employee are limited and the required action is clear or can be readily referred to a more senior employee.	Close supervision or, in the case of more experienced employees working alone, routine supervision.	An employee is not required to have formal qualifications or work experience upon engagement. An employee will be provided with on-the-job training which will provide information about, and/or an introduction to, the conditions of employment, the school, the school's policies and procedures in relation to the work environment and the employees with whom the employee will be working.
Classification Level B An employee at this level performs work above and beyond the skills of an employee at Level A.	Competency at this level involves application of knowledge and skills to a range of tasks and roles. There is a defined range of contexts where the choice of actions required is clear. There is limited complexity of choice of actions required. On occasion, more complex tasks may be performed.	(i) Applies generally accepted concepts, principles and standards in well-defined areas. Solves relatively simple problems with reference to established techniques and practices. Will sometimes choose between a range of straightforward alternatives. (ii) An employee at this level will be expected to perform a combination of various routine tasks where the daily work routine will allow the latitude to rearrange some work sequences, provided the prearranged work priorities are achieved.	Routine supervision of straightforward tasks; close supervision of more complex tasks. Where employees are working alone, less direct guidance and some autonomy may be involved.	Level B duties typically require: (i) a skill level which assumes and requires knowledge, training or experience relevant to the duties to be performed; (ii) completion of Year 12 without work experience; (iii) completion of Certificates I or II with work related experience; or (iv) an equivalent combination of experience and training. An instructional services employee (sport) will have no or minimal coaching experience but will possess appropriate sporting discipline specific experience.

Classification Level C An employee at this level performs work above and beyond the skills of an employee at Level B.	Competency at this level involves application of knowledge with depth in some areas and a broad range of skills. There are a range of roles and tasks in a variety of contexts. There is some complexity in the extent and choice of actions required. Competencies are normally used within routines, methods and procedures. Some discretion and judgment is involved in the selection of equipment, work organisation, services, actions and achieving outcomes within time constraints.	Exercise judgment on work methods and task sequence within specified timelines and standard practices and procedures. Answers are usually found by selecting from specific choices defined in standard work policies or procedures.	In some positions, routine supervision, moving to general direction with experience. In other positions, general direction. This is the first level where supervision of other employees may be required. When employees are working alone, they may work semi-autonomously.	Level C duties typically require a skill level which assumes and requires knowledge or training in clerical/administrative, trades or technical functions equivalent to: (i) completion of a trades certificate or Certificate III; (ii) completion of Year 12 or a Certificate II, with relevant work experience; or (iii) an equivalent combination of relevant experience and/or education/training. Employees who may have had an opportunity to progress within their appointed classification to a higher pay point will only progress to the next higher pay point under the new classification structure after 12 months, in accordance with clause 12.3 Progression.

Schedule 5 – Workplace Delegates Rights

- 1.1 This schedule provides for the exercise of the rights of workplace delegates set out in section 350C of the Act.

NOTE: Under section 350C(4) of the Act, the employer is taken to have afforded a workplace delegate the rights mentioned in section 350C(3) if the employer has complied with Schedule 5 – Workplace Delegates Rights.

- 1.2 In Schedule 5 – Workplace Delegates Rights:

- (a) employer means the employer of the workplace delegate;
- (b) delegate's organisation means the employee organisation in accordance with the rules of which the workplace delegate was appointed or elected; and
- (c) eligible employees means members and persons eligible to be members of the delegate's organisation who are employed by the employer in the enterprise.

- 1.3 Before exercising entitlements under Schedule 5 – Workplace Delegates Rights, a workplace delegate must give the employer written notice of their appointment or election as a workplace delegate. If requested, the workplace delegate must provide the employer with evidence that would satisfy a reasonable person of their appointment or election.

- 1.4 An employee who ceases to be a workplace delegate must give written notice to the employer within 14 days.

- 1.5 Right of representation

A workplace delegate may represent the industrial interests of eligible employees who wish to be represented by the workplace delegate in matters including:

- (a) consultation about major workplace change;
- (b) consultation about changes to rosters or hours of work;
- (c) resolution of disputes;
- (d) disciplinary processes;
- (e) enterprise bargaining where the workplace delegate has been appointed as a bargaining representative under section 176 of the Act or is assisting the delegate's organisation with enterprise bargaining; and

- (f) any process or procedure within an award, enterprise agreement or policy of the employer under which eligible employees are entitled to be represented and which concerns their industrial interests.

1.6 Entitlement to reasonable communication

- (a) A workplace delegate may communicate with eligible employees for the purpose of representing their industrial interests under clause 1.5. This includes discussing membership of the delegate's organisation and representation with eligible employees.
- (b) A workplace delegate may communicate with eligible employees during working hours or work breaks, or before or after work.

1.7 Entitlement to reasonable access to the workplace and workplace facilities

- (a) The employer must provide a workplace delegate with access to or use of the following workplace facilities:
 - (i) a room or area to hold discussions that is fit for purpose, private and accessible by the workplace delegate and eligible employees;
 - (ii) a physical or electronic noticeboard;
 - (iii) electronic means of communication ordinarily used in the workplace by the employer to communicate with eligible employees and by eligible employees to communicate with each other, including access to Wi-Fi;
 - (iv) a lockable filing cabinet or other secure document storage area; and
 - (v) office facilities and equipment including printers, scanners and photocopiers.
- (b) The employer is not required to provide access to or use of a workplace facility under clause 1.7(a) if:
 - (i) the workplace does not have the facility;
 - (ii) due to operational requirements, it is impractical to provide access to or use of the facility at the time or in the manner it is sought; or
 - (iii) the employer does not have access to the facility at the enterprise and is unable to obtain access after taking reasonable steps.

1.8 Entitlement to reasonable access to training

Unless the employer is a small business employer, the employer must provide a workplace delegate with access to up to 5 days of paid time during normal working hours for initial training and at least one day each subsequent year, to attend training related to representation of the industrial interests of eligible employees, subject to the following conditions:

- (a) In each year commencing 1 July, the employer is not required to provide access to paid time for training to more than one workplace delegate per 50 eligible employees.
- (b) The number of eligible employees will be determined on the day a delegate requests paid time to attend training, as the number of eligible employees who are:
 - (i) full-time or part-time employees; or
 - (ii) regular casual employees.
- (c) Payment for a day of paid time during normal working hours is payment of the amount the workplace delegate would have been paid for the hours the workplace delegate would have been rostered or required to work on that day if the delegate had not been absent from work to attend the training.
- (d) The workplace delegate must give the employer not less than 5 weeks' notice (unless the employer and delegate agree to a shorter period of notice) of the dates, subject matter, the daily start and finish times of the training, and the name of the training provider.
- (e) If requested by the employer, the workplace delegate must provide the employer with an outline of the training content.
- (f) The employer must advise the workplace delegate not less than 2 weeks from the day on which the training is scheduled to commence, whether the workplace delegate's access to paid time during normal working hours to attend the training has been approved. Such approval must not be unreasonably withheld.
- (g) The workplace delegate must, within 7 days after the day on which the training ends, provide the employer with evidence that would satisfy a reasonable person of their attendance at the training.

1.9 Exercise of entitlements under Schedule 5 – Workplace Delegates Rights

- (a) A workplace delegate's entitlements under Schedule 5 – Workplace Delegates Rights are subject to the conditions that the workplace delegate must, when exercising those entitlements:
 - (i) comply with their duties and obligations as an employee;

- (ii) comply with the reasonable policies and procedures of the employer, including reasonable codes of conduct and requirements in relation to occupational health and safety and acceptable use of ICT resources;
 - (iii) not hinder, obstruct or prevent the normal performance of work; and
 - (iv) not hinder, obstruct or prevent eligible employees exercising their rights to freedom of association.
- (b) Schedule 5 – Workplace Delegates Rights does not require the employer to provide a workplace delegate with access to electronic means of communication in a way that provides individual contact details for eligible employees.
- (c) Schedule 5 – Workplace Delegates Rights does not require an eligible employee to be represented by a workplace delegate without the employee's agreement.

NOTE: Under section 350A of the Act , the employer must not:

- (a) unreasonably fail or refuse to deal with a workplace delegate; or
- (b) knowingly or recklessly make a false or misleading representation to a workplace delegate; or
- (c) unreasonably hinder, obstruct or prevent the exercise of the rights of a workplace delegate under the Act or Schedule 5 – Workplace Delegates Rights.
