Student and Parent Terms and Conditions

- All students are to attend their lesson at the time specified. Lessons missed by the student without prior apology cannot be made up. However, school events such as school excursions or camps etc. which prevent a student attending a lesson will be endeavored to be rescheduled if possible. They must still notify their teacher in advance where possible to be ELIGIBLE.
- Parents must give 24 hours' notification to cancel a lesson and reschedule. Failure to do so, results in the fee being retained by the tutor.
- In the event of illness, it is up to the parent to contact the tutor as soon as they are aware of the illness to rearrange their lesson time. Failure to do so results in the fee being retained by the tutor.
- Parents are to encourage their child/children to practise their instrument at home.
- All fees are "Term Fees" for the duration of that Term's program and are non-refundable and non-reducible and are due at the commencement of each school term. (Except for valid credits where applicable).
- Credits can be issued for INDIVIDUAL lessons only, missed due to school events, teacher absence or special leave provisions. Any credits pertaining to the account will be calculated at the end of each term & transferred as appropriate to the following terms account.
- ELIGIBILITY for CREDITS is subject to ADVANCED NOTICE of school event to the Instrumental/Vocal teacher where possible.
- As a condition of instrument hire, parents are responsible for the full payment of repairing all damage caused to an instrument they have hired. Students and parents are to ensure proper care of their hired instrument.
- For two or more consecutively missed lessons, special leave can be arranged with at least two days of prior notice given by the student. In the event of a sudden change of circumstance special leave provision will be applied on a case by case basis.
